I submit herewith copies of the Judgement of the Sessions Court, Bellary. I consulted the District Superintendent of Police regarding the advisability of the premature release of the convict in question.

As the convict with three others committed a brutal murder and robbery, he considers that he cannot be released without risk of injury to the community. I agree with him and do not recommend the premature release of the prisoner.

The convict in question comes under the third class given in para 3 of G.O. No. 1774 Judicial dated 18-11-1911. Convicts in this Class should only be recommended for release after 20 ^x years, whereas the convict in question has only served about 14 years. Further it is directed that special care should be taken in cases of murders committed for gain. The present case involves murder for gain and is one of the worst that could come under the third class, as it was evidently a premeditated crime committed in association with three other persons.

I do not therefore recommend his premature release.

If the D.M.'s recommendation is ~~tax~~ accepted, the convict's release may be refused now. But the policy of Govt in the case of Port Blair convicts is not to refuse their release from the Andamans but to release them ^{conditionally} on the usual conditions of good conduct for a specified period or to ~~transfer~~ transfer them from the Andamans to a provincial jail in this Presidency to undergo the unexpired portion of their sentences.
This convict's transfer to a jail in this Presy may therefore be ordered, and the I.G may be asked to resubmit the case of the convict after a year or two after consideration by the Advisory Board.
